

Crossroads Church

Worship Intern

We are seeking a dedicated and passionate individual to join our team as a Worship Intern. The ideal candidate will have an unwavering devotion to Jesus Christ, recognizing Him as the center of life, worship, and ministry. With a heartfelt desire for full-time or part-time engagement in worship ministry, the Crossroads Worship Intern will embark on a journey of spiritual growth and service in the Kingdom. In exchange for 20 hours per week, Crossroads will provide off-site housing as well as workspace within the church building as needed. Interns are strongly encouraged to seek part-time work in our mountain-town community.

Responsibilities:

- Work weekly with Worship Pastor, Derek Brown, to develop and pursue a personal spiritual growth plan for the duration of internship.
- Work closely with Derek to develop skills and sensitivities for leading worship and creating an atmosphere conducive to encountering the presence of God.
- Collaborate with Derek and the worship team to plan and execute engaging and Spirit-led worship experiences.
- Utilize proficiency in playing piano or guitar to lead full band rehearsals and/or worship services.
- Demonstrate excellence in charting songs and arranging musical elements to enhance worship dynamics.
- Embody servant leadership by prioritizing the needs of others and fostering a culture of unity, humility, and love within the worship team and congregation.
- Serve as a team player, actively contributing ideas, skills, and talents to collective worship endeavors.
- Cultivate a spirit of humility, openness, and teachability, seeking continual growth and development as both a worshipper and leader.
- Commit to stewarding gifts and talents for the advancement of God's kingdom, with a focus on glorifying Him in all aspects of ministry.
- These responsibilities will require approximately 20 hours per week.

Qualifications:

- A personal relationship with and devotion to Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior as well as a desire for growth in fellowship with the Trinity (Father, Son and the Holy Spirit).
- Demonstrated experience in leading worship, either in church settings, youth groups, or other contexts.
- Ability to create simple charts for worship songs.

- Demonstrates a high degree of patience and grace when giving or receiving musical direction.
- Proficiency in playing piano or guitar.
- Strong interpersonal skills, with an emphasis on servant leadership, teamwork, and humility.
- Eagerness to grow spiritually and professionally, embracing opportunities for mentorship, training, and discipleship.

Skills and benefits this Intern will acquire:

- Accountability and development of personal faith and devotion to Christ.
- Development of leadership skills necessary for overseeing a worship ministry.
- Development of personal spiritual gifts as well as talents.
- Refinement and improvement of musical proficiency.
- Refinement and improvement of vocal skills.
- Increased ability to express songs with your authentic voice and style.
- Learning Crossroads' standard song-charting format.
- Development of communication skills necessary for working with musicians who are more advanced or less advanced than yourself.
- Access to workspace within the Crossroads church building.
- Development of health and outdoor activities. We ski here, we hike, bike, camp, and spend a lot of time outdoors in God's creation.
- Development of sense of humor – some people take themselves too seriously and God not seriously enough. We try to avoid that here.
- 24 hour access to Crossroads' Italian espresso machine - after adequate training and cleaning instruction, of course ☺.
